DIRECTIVE 2012-05

January 17, 2012

To: All County Boards of Elections
Re: Addition of William M. O'Neill as a Candidate for Ohio Supreme Court

Summary

Boards of elections are directed to include the name William M. O'Neill on the March 6, 2012 primary election ballot as a candidate for the Democratic Party nomination for Justice of the Supreme Court, Full Term Commencing 1-2-2013.

Direction

On Friday, January 13, 2012, William M. O'Neill filed a lawsuit in the Ohio Supreme Court against 10 county boards of elections asserting that 13 signatures appearing on his nominating petitions had been improperly invalidated by those county boards of elections. As a result of county review of signatures, O'Neill fell 7 valid signatures short of the 1,000 signature threshold to qualify for the ballot.

Based on the evidence presented by the plaintiff, and reviewed by my office, I believe the plaintiff to be correct that at least 7 of the 13 signatures presented in the lawsuit should have been validated by the county boards of elections. Had these 13 signatures come to me from those boards in the form of tie votes, I would have broken the tie in favor of validation in at least 7 instances. While I believe the Court would likely dismiss the case, not based on the merits of the signatures in questions, but based on when the lawsuit was filed and the elections calendar established by the General Assembly, I must err on the side of ballot access and instruct all county boards of elections to place the name William M. O'Neill on the March 6, 2012 primary election ballot as a candidate for the Democratic Party nomination for Justice of the Supreme Court, Full Term Commencing 1-2-2013.

I understand that this causes a hardship for some counties. However, this is the most advisable course of action, as it is easier for boards to remove a candidate from the ballot after January 21 than it is to place a candidate on the ballot after that time.

If you have any questions about this Directive, please contact the elections attorney assigned to your county.

Sincerely,

Jon Husted
