Qualifications for Offices of President and Vice President

A candidate for the office of President of the United States must be a natural born citizen of the United States, a U.S. resident for at least 14 years, and at least 35 years old on or before the day of the election. (U.S. Constitution, Article II, section 1)

A candidate for the office of Vice President of the United States must have the same qualifications as a candidate for President. The candidate for Vice President shall not be an inhabitant of the same state as the candidate for President. (U.S. Constitution, Amendment XII)

Presidential and vice presidential candidates must file jointly with, or be certified jointly to, the Ohio Secretary of State's Office (U.S. Constitution, Amendment XII; R.C. 3513.12, 3513.121).

Generally, a presidential candidacy may take one of the following forms in Ohio:

- Participation in a party primary as provided by law and party rules;
- Joint candidacy of a minor political party having legal status in Ohio;
- Independent joint candidacy; or
- Joint write-in candidacy.

The form of candidacy determines the method by which candidates obtain access to the Ohio ballot for the presidential primary or general election.

Ballot Access for Major Political Parties

The presidential and vice presidential nominees of major political parties are not nominated through primary elections, but are selected by delegates at each party's national convention. The number of delegates and alternates to be sent to a convention is determined by the national party committee's written rules governing the primary process in each state.

The two major political parties currently having legal status in Ohio – the Democratic and Republican parties – have filing requirements and deadlines in each party's written rules, in addition to those provided for by statute.

Democratic Presidential Primary

Anyone interested in participating as a candidate in the Democratic presidential nominating process should:

1. Review the relevant materials of the state and national Democratic Party organizations, including the party rules and the Ohio Democratic Party's 2016 Ohio Delegate Selection Plan;
2. If you are interested in being designated as a delegate or alternate delegate, obtain the written consent of the two people, your first and second choices for the Democratic Party's presidential candidate, whom you want to support as a delegate or alternate delegate; and
3. Obtain the appropriate forms and file those forms as provided by Ohio law and the Ohio Democratic Party's 2016 Ohio Delegate Selection Plan.

Pursuant to the 2016 Ohio Delegate Selection Plan published by the Ohio Democratic Party, a presidential candidate obtains access to the Democratic presidential primary ballot by having one or two qualified electors file as at-large delegates. Petition and Signature Requirements (R.C. 3513.05; R.C. 3501.38; R.C. 3503.06)

Candidates for at-large delegate file the Declaration of Candidacy and Petition (Ohio Secretary of State Form 2-N), designating their first and second choices for nomination as the Democratic candidate for President.

The Declaration of Candidacy and Petition (Ohio Secretary of State Form 2-N) may consist of separate petition papers, each containing signatures of electors of only one county. If a petition paper contains signatures of electors from more than one county, the Secretary of State's Office will determine the county from which the majority of signatures came, and only signatures from that county shall be counted. Any other signature on that petition paper will be invalidated.

The petition must contain signatures of at least 1,000 – but not more than 3,000 – qualified Ohio electors affiliated with the Democratic Party. For purposes of signing or circulating a petition in 2015, an elector is considered to be affiliated with the Democratic Party if the elector either voted in the primary elections only of the Democratic Party in 2013 or 2014 or did not vote in any other political party's primary elections in those years.

Each separate petition paper must be circulated by one individual and is governed by the rules set forth in R.C. 3501.38 and R.C. 3503.06.

Additional Forms

Each candidate for at-large delegate also must file the Consent for Use of Name (Ohio Secretary of State Forms 2-R and 2-S), signed by the presidential candidates designated in the Declaration of Candidacy and Petition (Ohio Secretary of State Form 2-N) as the delegate or alternate's first and second choices for the Democratic nomination for President.

When and Where to File

The properly-completed and signed forms must be filed no later than 4 p.m. on December 16, 2015 with the Ohio Secretary of State's Elections Division.

Please be advised that the 2016 Ohio Delegate Selection Plan may require that additional forms be filed with the Ohio Democratic Party in advance of the December 16, 2015 filing deadline. Please consult the Plan for further information.

Filing Fee

There is no fee to file these forms with the Secretary of State's Office.

Republican Presidential Primary

Anyone interested in participating as a candidate in the Republican presidential nominating process should:

1. Review the relevant materials of the national and state Republican Party organizations, including the party rules;
2. If you are interested in being designated as a delegate or alternate delegate, obtain the written consent of the two people, your first and second choices as the Republican Party's presidential candidate, whom you want to support as a delegate or alternate delegate; and
3. Determine which method you will use to obtain access to the Ohio Republican Party primary election ballot (outlined below), obtain the appropriate forms, and file those forms as provided by Ohio law.

Ballot Access Methods for the Republican Presidential Primary

Petition Method (R.C. 3513.12)

A presidential candidate who is not eligible to attain ballot access via the Alternate (non-petition) Method of R.C. 3513.121, or who wants to use the petition process, may obtain access to the Republican Party's presidential primary ballot through the filing of petitions for delegates and alternate delegates.

Under the petition method, the presidential candidate gains access to the party's primary ballot by fielding candidates for delegate and alternate delegate to the party's national convention who have pledged their support to that candidate. The candidates must file a Declaration of Candidacy and Petition.

Under the rules of the Ohio Republican Party, the delegates and alternate delegates are elected both at-large and by congressional district. Candidates for delegate or alternate delegate may file either as an individual or as a group.

Each candidate for delegate or alternate delegate filing under the petition method must file a Declaration of Candidacy and Petition with the appropriate election officials.

Individual candidates for district delegate or alternate district delegate file a Declaration of Candidacy and Petition with the board of elections of the most populous county in the congressional district. Individual candidates for at-large delegate or alternate at-large delegate file with the Ohio Secretary of State's Office.

The Declaration of Candidacy and Petition may consist of separate petition papers, each of which must contain signatures of electors of only one county. If a petition paper contains signatures of electors from more than one county, even if in the same congressional district, the election officials who accepted the filing will determine the county from which the majority of signatures came, and only signatures from that county shall be counted. Any other signature on that petition paper will be invalidated. (R.C. 3513.05)

Each separate petition paper must be circulated by one person, and is governed by the rules set forth in R.C. 3501.38 and R.C. 3503.06.

Alternate (Non-Petition) Method (R.C. 3513.121; 28 U.S.C. §1746)

Eligibility

A Republican presidential candidate who is able to meet the criteria (below) established in R.C. 3513.121 may be certified to the Ohio presidential primary ballot if the presidential candidate and the candidates for delegate and alternate delegate who have pledged to support that presidential candidate file Declarations of Candidacy (no petition containing signatures of Ohio electors is necessary).

Presidential Candidates – What, When and Where to File

Each presidential candidate filing for the Republican primary election under the Alternate (non-petition) Method must file the following documents with the Ohio Secretary of State's Elections Division:

1. A "reasonable accounting" proving that the candidate's campaign committee has raised at least $5,000 for the primary election in each of 20 states from individuals, with a maximum of $250 per contributor counting toward the threshold.¹
2. A statement from the presidential candidate's registered presidential campaign committee treasurer meeting the standards of 28 U.S.C. §1746 and certifying that the candidate's committee has met the applicable contribution requirements.²
3. The appropriate Declarations of Candidacy (no petition):
 - Form 1-A, Declaration of Candidacy for Party Primary Election for President – Designation of Delegates and Alternates Elected by Congressional District, indicating the Ohio congressional districts in which the presidential candidate wishes to appear on the ballot and including the presidential candidate's list of approved district delegates and alternate district delegates in each congressional district; and
 - Form 1-B, Declaration of Candidacy for Party Primary Election for President – Designation of Delegates At-large and Alternates At-large, including the presidential candidate's list of approved delegates and alternate delegates to be elected at-large on the statewide ballot.

¹Ohio law does not define what constitutes a "reasonable accounting." The Secretary of State's Office previously has accepted a document containing, for each state, each individual contributor's name and address and the amount and date of the contribution as a "reasonable accounting."

²Ohio law does not prescribe language for the statement. The Secretary of State's Office previously has accepted a signed and dated statement containing the following language: "I declare (certify, verify, or state) under penalty of perjury that the attached accounting is true and correct, and that the campaign committee of (Presidential Candidate) has met the contribution requirements of Revised Code Section 3513.121."

These documents must be filed, in person or by mail, at the same time with the Ohio Secretary of State's Elections Division no later than 4 p.m. on December 16, 2015.

2. A group of voters filed a party formation petition with the Secretary of State's Office that satisfied the requirements of R.C. 3517.01.

Additional Information on a Specific Minor Political Party

Individuals seeking a minor party's nomination for President or Vice President, or who desire to be a delegate or alternate delegate to that minor party's convention, should contact the appropriate state and/or national office for that minor political party.

Ballot Access for Independent Candidates

Independent joint candidates for President and Vice President run without a political party designation. Instead of participating in the primary process, they participate in Ohio's general election by filing a valid and sufficient joint nominating petition.

Be advised that an independent candidate must actually be unaffiliated from any political party, and the required claim of being unaffiliated must be made in good faith for the candidate to be qualified to run as an independent candidate. The Electoral College

(U.S. Constitution, Art. II, §1 and Amendment XII; 3 U.S.C. 1)

Each state is allocated a number of presidential electors equal to its number of U.S. Senators and U.S. Representatives. Ohio will have 18 presidential electors in 2016.

The legislature of each state prescribes the method for appointing presidential electors. A political party or independent candidate in every state submits to the state's chief election official a list of individuals pledged to its candidate for president, equal in number to the state's electoral vote.

In Ohio (R.C. 3505.10, 3505.39, 3505.40, 3513.11 and 3513.111)

Each major political party in Ohio may hold a state convention at a time and place fixed by the party's state central committee, but no later than 40 days prior to the general election, for nominating candidates for election as presidential electors. Within five days after that convention, the party chairperson and secretary certify in writing to the Secretary of State's Office, the names of all persons nominated as candidates for presidential electors.

If a major political party does not hold a state convention, then the executive committee of the party's state central committee must nominate candidates for election as presidential electors in accordance with party rules. These nominations must occur no later than 40 days prior to the presidential election. Within five days after these candidates are nominated, the chairperson or secretary of the executive committee, or, in the absence of the chairperson or secretary, a designated committee member, must certify in writing to the Secretary of State's Office the names of all persons so nominated.

A recognized minor party in the state must certify in writing to the Secretary of State's Office the names of persons designated in accordance with the party's rules.

Meeting of the Electoral College (R.C. 3505.39, 3505.40; 3 U.S.C. §7)

The Ohio Secretary of State mails to each Ohio presidential elector a certificate of election and notice of the meeting of Ohio's Electoral College voters. On the Monday following the second Wednesday of December in a presidential election year, each state's presidential electors meet in their respective state capitols and cast their electoral votes, one for President and one for Vice President. A presidential elector must cast his or her electoral vote for the nominees for President and Vice President of the political party that certified him or her as a presidential elector.

The electoral votes of each state are then sealed and transmitted to the President of the U.S. Senate, who, in early January (of 2017), opens and reads them before both houses of Congress. The presidential candidate who receives the absolute majority of electoral votes is declared President; the Vice Presidential candidate who receives the absolute majority of electoral votes is declared Vice President.

The seal of the Ohio Secretary of State is circular, featuring a landscape with a sun rising over hills and water. The text "THE SECRETARY OF STATE" and "OHIO" is visible around the perimeter. A signature of "Jon Husted" is written in white cursive over the seal.
