

DIRECTIVE 2010-82

December 10, 2010

To: ALL COUNTY BOARDS OF ELECTIONS

Re: Reimbursement of Pollworker Training Costs

POLLWORKER TRAINING REIMBURSEMENT

In accordance with R.C. 3501.27, the Secretary of State's office will reimburse county boards of elections for the cost of election official training conducted in 2010, which includes training of only the following three categories of precinct election officials:

1. new poll workers anytime in 2010,
2. presiding judges prior to the primary election, and
3. poll workers who had been previously trained, but were not trained in 2008 or 2009 (i.e., third-year renewal training).

The Secretary of State's office will reimburse a maximum of $5 per pollworker for attending the training session and also will reimburse the cost of training or instructional materials. The expenses of paid trainers or rental of training facilities will not be reimbursed.

Enclosed is the reimbursement form for 2010 to be returned no later than December 28, 2010 to the attention of Denise Sherrod in the Elections Division of the Secretary of State's office. Please transmit the completed and signed form to her by one of the following methods:
