R.C. 3509.06(D), 3513.19, .20

Your request for a political party ballot for the primary election indicates a choice of ballot of a different political party than your current political party affiliation. In order for your ballot to be counted, you must complete, sign and return this form to the county board of elections.

Do NOT seal this form in the Identification Envelope. It must be placed separately in the return envelope, or election officials will not know you have returned the form. If the form is not visible to the election officials when opening the return mailing envelope, your ballot may not be counted as the board of elections is prohibited by law from opening the Identification Envelope.
