Re: Ohio Elections Commission Referral

Dear Chair Brommer and Members of the Ohio Elections Commission:

Earlier today the United States Attorney for the Southern District of Ohio, David DeVillers, publicly unveiled an 82-page Criminal Complaint alleging a criminal conspiracy to participate, directly or indirectly, in the conduct of an enterprise's affairs through a pattern of racketeering activity. Among the many disturbing allegations contained in the Complaint are apparent or alleged violations of Ohio's campaign finance laws.

Pursuant to Ohio Revised Code 3517.153 and 3517.11, I am referring the attached complaint of apparent or alleged violations of Ohio laws to you. This likely does not constitute a comprehensive list of apparent or alleged violations of Ohio laws, as certain relevant facts are redacted in the publicly released Criminal Complaint. I will refer additional apparent or alleged violations of Ohio laws to the Ohio Elections Commission as they become known.

For those of us who answer the call to public service with a sincere desire to be good stewards of the public trust, today is deeply disappointing. Sadly, today's Criminal Complaint serves as a reminder that some enter public life seeking to accumulate power and enrich themselves. My elections and campaign finance teams and I are available to answer any questions you may have about this complaint. I look forward to working together with you to further the cause of transparency and ensure that justice is done.

Yours in service,

Frank LaRose
Ohio Secretary of State
